Subject: Strong Support for January 6th Investigation Among North Carolina Voters; North Carolinians See Trump Loyalists as the Problem, Not Just Trump

Date: August 2, 2022

A new Public Policy Polling survey finds that a large majority (78%) of North Carolina voters have seen, heard, or read a lot or some about the investigation into what happened on January 6th at the U.S. Capitol, and the events leading up to it. North Carolinians support the investigation by a 15-point margin (55-40) and a majority (60%) consider the investigation into what happened on January 6th to be important. Among independents, a majority supports the investigation (58-40%) and 55% consider it important.

When considering concerns about the events, nearly half (47%) of voters think the problem was not only with Donald Trump, but also members of the Republican Party who are loyalists to Trump. Just 11% of voters consider Trump to be the only problem. This is also true among independent voters—49% think the problem is also with Trump loyalists in the Republican Party, while just 3% think the problem is only with Trump.

Voters also express major concerns over issues uncovered by the January 6th investigation:

- 65% are concerned (with 56% saying they have very serious concerns, including 54% of independents) about Trump demanding that Mike Pence overturn the election result for him even after White House lawyers told him it was illegal.
- 64% are concerned (with 52% very concerned) about Trump and his allies telling people there was voter fraud in the 2020 election, even after some of Trump's lawyers and the Attorney General told them there was no widespread fraud.
- 60% are concerned (with 52% very concerned) about Trump knowing that many of his supporters attending his rally on January 6th were armed, yet he instructed them to march on the Capitol anyway. Even 57% of independents are concerned.
- 60% are concerned (with 53% very concerned) about Trump refusing to do anything for over three hours after being told the Capitol was under siege.
- 60% are concerned (with 54% very concerned) about Trump and his team repeatedly pressuring local election officials in key states to find votes to change the outcome of the election. Even 57% of independents are concerned.
- 60% are concerned (with 52% very concerned) about Republican Senate candidate Ted Budd being an election denier who voted to overturn the election results and called the Capitol rioters "Patriots." Even 56% of independents are concerned.

Public Policy Polling surveyed 505 North Carolina voters from July 27-28, 2022. The margin of error is +/- 4.4%. 67% of interviews for the survey were conducted by text message and 33% by telephone.
